

Teraco Data Environments | July 2008

Marlow led a R54 million financing for a telecommunications services provider.

Teraco is the first network independent co-location centre offering in South Africa. An network independent co-location centre (also known as a carrier hotel) is a co-location centre where businesses can not only locate their data and components but also interconnect to multiple telecommunications and network service providers.

TERACO®
DATA ENVIRONMENTS